MACEDONIA, NORTHERN GREECE

Evangelos Gerovassiliou (yer-oh-vah-see-lee-oh) is regarded as the leading figure in the Greek wine industry during the last 20 years. He was the first in Greece to master Syrah.

Tasting notes:

This complex wine has aromas of blackberries, jam and spices. Medium to full-bodied, its combination of cassis and chocolate flavors with deep, dark fruit suggest a midpoint between traditional Rhone and New World Syrah--the best of both worlds from a highly-regarded talent.
