Winemaker Yiannis Boutaris (Kir-Yianni) and sons Stelios and Mihalis own vineyards in Naoussa and Amyndaio in north central Greece. This region has a continental climate. Boutaris has been one of the country's most highly regarded vintners for decades.

This wine blends the traditional Macedonian grape Xynomavro (pron. ksee-noh-mah-vroh) with the southern Greek grape St. George. This wine has a rich, spicy nose, juicy palate of plums and blackberries and firm structure.
